Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claim 1 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ohyoshi (US 6,118,759).

Regarding claim 1, Ohyoshi teaches a method and apparatus for interfacing a frame relay network and an ATM Asynchronous Transfer Mode network (fig. 1 box FR1, 20, FR2). The system comprises a congestion information extracting means for extracting congestion information (EFCI, fig. 12 box 72, col. 17 lines 15 - 18), mode setting means (performs no mapping as usual, col. 17 lines 23 - 25) for combining the extracted congestion information with congestion information of an output side (FECN, col. 17 lines 23 - 25), and a congestion information writing means (recognize a congestion notification, fig. 1 box FR2, col. 17 lines 25 - 29). Note, if the congestion information is recognized it is inherent that the information must have been written.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 2-6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
